Celebrate with Heart

Please join us at this fabulous fundraising event for an evening of celebration, all in support of Heart House Hospice

This marvelous night of live entertainment, amazing cuisine and shopping from a wide array of first-rate items will take place on October 22nd, 2010 at the newly renovated Renaissance by the Creek.

The evening will kick off with sampling provided by the famous Rodney's Oyster House accompanied with complimentary champagne. While you are enjoying these treats embrace the ambiance as Grenville Pinto serenades you with his live violin.

A four-course sit down dinner will be served for you and your guests and then complete the evening by dancing the night away to the contemporary sounds of The Original Replay.

Program:

*It is our pleasure to present the MC for the evening
Carolyn MacKenzie, Global
Toronto, Weekend News Anchor and Feature Reporter.*

Carolyn is an award winning journalist who has spent more than a decade covering some of the biggest stories in the GTA and across Canada.

Carolyn joined the Global Toronto news team in 2005, and in 2006, Carolyn won the RTNDA Edward R. Murrow Award for "Best Investigative Journalist" for her series on transit inaccessibility. She also won "Best Spot News Story" from York Regional Police for her coverage of a home invasion in Vaughan.

Other career highlights include covering the Air France Crash, the Queen's Jubilee Visit, and helping Global Toronto win an RTNDA for "Best Continuing Coverage" on the arrests of the Toronto Terror Suspects.

Carolyn now adds a new role to her resume...mom. In the Spring of '08, she and her husband, a Toronto Firefighter, had their first child, a baby girl.
